Church Counseling

Guiding principle

Biblical counseling is an approach to counseling that uses the Bible to address the issues in the lives of individuals, couples, and families. It addresses the heart as the source of human actions and reactions using the wisdom and attitudes revealed in the Bible. The biblical counselor helps people identify their problems in biblical terms. As this is done, the individual's view of his or her problem is changed and becomes biblical. This process is filled with grace and is ultimately redemptive. The gospel of Jesus Christ is the foundation for the work of biblical counseling.

Referral Procedure
